April 2013

Happy Spring valleyvillage.development@gmail.com!

We're planning on keeping you busy! Next weekend we will be celebrating our Legacy Group Members who have written Valley Village or the Valley Village Foundation into their planned giving. Then, we have a fun fashion trunk show fundraiser coming up on the 20th. In May, we'll have a Volunteer Thank You Event. Then don't miss out on Showtime! The Final Curtain on Saturday, June 15. You'll see comedian Jeremy Hotz perform and Valley Village friend Bob Saget host.

CARDS TO THE TROOPS

Clients Volunteering

One of our clients, David Bottger, oversaw our "Easter Cards for Troops" campaign this year. David and several other participants from Valley Village's ADHC in Winnetka worked on the project. The letters were sent to the Red Cross, which then distributed them to soldiers who needed them most. The Red Cross provides help to more than 2 million, and the cards send a "touch of home."

The letter writers!

GETTY CENTER GOES ALL OUT

Nearly 300 Attend Community- at-Large Day

Our Community-at-Large Day on March 16 at the Getty Center was a tremendous success, with nearly 300 people attending. Clients from Valley Village, New Horizons and Easter Seals had special tours of the landmark museum, aided by many enthusiastic volunteers. Special thanks to David Singleman, Group Coordinator, Visitor Services, at the J. Paul Getty Museum, and Rose Urrutia, Visitor Services Associate, The Getty Center, who so graciously pointed out highlights and accessible tour routes.
