Announcement

Space is available in our Sunland building for an afterschool program. Contact us for more information.

Jonathan Cooper over the last 23 years, and we look forward to spending many more years with Jonathan.

Jonathan has been attending the Valley Village Winnetka Adult Day Center program since September 1987. Jonathan has made lasting friendships with staff and his peers at Valley Village. Jonathan's favorite things to do at program are to go on outings. He loves fruits and vegetables and looks forward to participating in different activities. It has been a pleasure to care for Jonathan

Spotlight on a Volunteer

Meet Jo Ellen Krumm

Jo Ellen began volunteering as a development specialist in October through the LA Fellows job training program. She is honing her journalistic skills in grant writing. "I feel this is a perfect match for my research and writing talents and am learning so much about nonprofit management," she notes.
