

VALLEY VILLAGE BUSINESS COUNCIL

Where Adults With Developmental Challenges Thrive

WORKING with our COMMUNITY

Join the business leaders of Los Angeles in supporting Valley Village's model programs for individuals with developmental challenges. The Business Council raises funds that directly benefit our clients through special services including a number of therapies, educational and community inclusive programs.

In recognition of their generosity, Business Council members receive exclusive benefits that are designed to provide access to other business leaders with a shared commitment to invest in their community. Member companies are invited to regularly scheduled Valley Village events that provide opportunities to network with other business leaders, meet Valley Village board members and staff and learn more about how your good corporate citizenship serves the community.

Through your tax-deductible gift to Valley Village, Business Council members enrich the lives of the individuals we serve, as well as their families. Valley Village expresses its gratitude by providing public recognition that celebrates your generosity and positions you and your company among other business leaders who not only do well in business, but also do good in the community.
