VALLEY VILLAGE GETS GROOVY AT SOLID GOLD 70s!

Attendees enjoyed comedian Danny Jolles at Solid Gold 70s.

On Thursday, May 12, 2022, Valley Village hosted its fundraiser event, Solid Gold 70s. Sponsors, family, friends, business leaders, elected official staffers, and guests celebrated Valley Village's 50th Anniversary at the Valley Relics Museum. They supported our efforts to raise funds for programs serving adults with developmental and intellectual challenges. Attendees got into the spirit of the theme and wore fabulous 1970s attire, making the event more fun as we enjoyed our first Valley Village in-person event since 2019. Retired LA City Councilmember Dennis Zine led Valley Village's Live Auction, and comedians Sunda Croonquist and Danny Jolles returned to entertain attendees. Valley Village's Board President, Leela Kapur, with Deb Donovan, Valley Village's Executive Director, received commendations from state and local elected officials, and introduced a video about Valley Village, its history, its mission and why we do what we do. We will release the video for all to see in the next few weeks. Thank you to all who supported our event and attended!
